The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U S Commissioner, must accompany the petition and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court who refuses to prove his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $500) five hundred dollars, also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe Commissioner suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family, Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to add to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes, as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay, in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors

"WE WILL HAVE THE WHOLE LOAF!"

An anniversary celebration of emancipation in the District of Columbia took place in Washington, a few days ago. Among the letters received on the occasion was the following, which we find in the Washington Chronicle:

WELDON, N. C., April 16, 1868.

To George L. Downing, Esq.:

Say to my friends assembled that we of North Carolina rejoice with them to day, and want them to rejoice with us on the 21st, 22d, and 23d, of this month. We will have the whole loaf.

JOHN V. GIVENS.

Who is this Jno. V. Givens, who thus impudently says "WE will have the whole loaf!" Why an itinerant NEGRO preacher from somewhere up North, who is denied the privilege of voting at home, and who comes down to North Carolina and says "We will have the whole loaf!" Not half a loaf,—not equal privileges with white men, but "the whole loaf," the offices, the control of affairs generally, everything. This negro Givens, writing to the negroes from the four quarters of the country who are starving in and around Washington, tells them to be of good cheer—"WE will have the whole loaf," and then you can all come down and share the spoils!

WHITE MEN! It rests with you to say whether this impudent boast shall be realized. If the infamous Constitution is ratified, you may rest assured that the "whole loaf" will indeed be in the hands of an inferior and semi-barbarous race!

TENNESSEE.—This State has been "back in the Union," for more than twelve months. What is her condition? From all we can learn, business was never more stagnant and money was never scarcer. Something is claimed for her, because she has paid part of her interest on her State debt. This has been done, no doubt, by the sale of her bonds at a great sacrifice. Many of the white Radicals of East Tennessee are getting their eyes opened and are abandoning the Radical party. Although she has paid part of her interest, yet her bonds do not improve in the market. Her public debt, before the war, was only about $18,000,000. It is now said to be $72,000,000. This is a plain indication what would be the condition of North Carolina, if the infamous Constitution shall be adopted. Place the State in the hands of the Yankee Radicals among us, and the scallawags and negroes, and the property holders of the State would either be forced into repudiation OR WOULD LEAVE THE STATE!

A KITE WITH A LONG TAIL.—The Newbern Journal of Commerce dubs Ashley, the Mongrel Candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, P. P. F. P. O. N. P. A. N. T. F. M. B: Which, being interpreted, signifieth—Pharisaical Pilgrim Father, Professor of Nasal Psalmody, And Negro Teacher from Massachusetts Bay.

ALL IS WELL! Only vote,—VOTE,—VOTE; AND WE SHALL DEFEAT THE MONGRELS OVERWHELMINGLY!

MESSRS. ASHE AND HALL.

The discussion of great principles has so absorbed the time and attention of the Press, that we have had but little, during the canvass, to say about men. Besides, our object has been rather to defeat our own candidates, by the defeat of the infamous Constitution, than to parade their personal claims to the suffrages of the people.

In our gallant standard bearers for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, Hon. Thos. Ashe and Col. Edward D. Hall, we have candidates worthy of our warmest support, and in whom we may justly feel the highest pride. They have both done their duty ably, faithfully and manfully, and have established a claim to the gratitude of the white men of North Carolina, which will never be repudiated.

The same thing may be said of our Canvassers, generally. They have all acted nobly and labored efficiently, and deserve the plaudit "Well done! good and faithful servants!"

IS IT GENUINE?

The Standard publishes a letter from Hon. Robert C. Schenck to Mr. Holden, written as an official communication from the "Union Congressional Executive Committee," in which Mr. Schenck, if the letter is genuine, assures Mr. Holden that his services are appreciated by the party, and that "We have heard no objection to your being relieved made by any of the Union members of either House of Congress." Mr Schenck, in this letter, further tells Mr. Holden, that his "disabilities would have been removed ere this, had not legislation been interrupted by the impeachment trial, or had your name been introduced in a separate or independent bill."

There is room to doubt the genuineness of the letter, as Mr. Schenck declared in the House, while the bill to remove the disabilities of Mr. Holden and others was before the House, that while he was in favor of removing the disabilities of some of those named in the bill, yet he would not vote for any such bill, until the Howard amendment was declared to be a part of the Constitution, when two thirds of the Congress would then have the power to remove their disabilities, and not before!

HON. NATHANIEL BOYDEN addressed the people of Rowan, at Salisbury, on Saturday morning. He was listened to with close attention, says the Old North State, and his earnest works of soberness and truth will be long remembered. He told the people to vote down the new Constitution, fearlessly and unhesitatingly, and to remember that, if it should be adopted, it will not bring peace, nor prosperity, nor happiness, but evil and only evil, upon themselves and prosperity, and that for all time.

He proposed to address any colored people that might desire to hear him at night; and that, if they had any one to reply to him, to bring him in. He wanted all to know his views, and to know the whole truth about the new Constitution, before they cast their votes.

SAML. T. WILLIAMS, Esq.—We are requested by Mr. Williams, our candidate for Congress, in this District, to state that he was prevented from being present at the mass meeting in Hillsboro, on Saturday, on account of high water preventing him from getting over from Chatham.

Mr. Williams speaks at Brassfields, Granville, to day.

He has done his duty nobly throughout the canvass,—displaying untiring energy and fine ability. Whether successful or defeated, he has made a record for himself, of which he and his friends may well be proud.

DO NOT loiter and "linger" about the polling places, friends. VOTE yourselves, and then go off and see that your friends, neighbors and acquaintances vote. See that the aged and infirm have the means of getting to the polls. Devote three days to the cause,—the cause of the country, of your wives, your children and your race! Labor in season and out of season! Be quiet about it—make no noisy demonstrations,—set the same example of moderation and love of peace and order that has signalized your conduct throughout the campaign.—Heed the admonitions of the military authorities as to "crowding the polls," but be certain to VOTE—every man of you; or you will repent it with bitterness and tears!

THE Standard, and other rebel Radical sheets, have made a great ado over a recent disturbance at Clinton. Certain gentlemen accused of being implicated in the affair were arrested, a few days since, at the instance, doubtless, of old Tribulation Ashley and others, and examined before Gen. Hinks, Post Commandant at Goldsboro. After investigation, they were immediately discharged, without day. We presume that no Radical will question Gen. Hinks' "Republicanism!"

IMPEACHMENT.—The vote in the Senate, on Saturday, by which the testimony of Cabinet officers was excluded, possesses great significance. This was evident from the excitement which the announcement of the result occasioned in the Court. The vote was considered a test, we presume. If so, impeachment will fail, as two-thirds of the Senate failed to vote for the exclusion. The whole impeachment affair is a disgrace to the country, and surely there is yet left in the United States Senate enough of regard for the sanctity of an oath to defeat this scheme of unparalleled infamy.

HAS DEWEESE GIVEN UP THE CHASE?—We judge that Deweese must have given up the chase. We have not heard of his being in the canvass for some time. He has his runners out, we suppose, but he seems to have abandoned the drive. Well enough! From what we hear, he will be left in the shade.

CHATHAM.—A gentleman from Chatham, who has travelled extensively over it within the past ten days, informs us that a tremendous re-action has taken place in that county, and that it will vote down the infamous Constitution by a large majority.

Editorial Correspondence of the Mobile Register.

WHAT IS EXPECTED OF THE SOUTHERN DELEGATES IN THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION—PENDLETON AND THE PRESIDENCY.

WASHINGTON, April 1.

* * * The universal wish and expectation of the Democracy of the United States is that the whites of the South shall be represented by delegates in the National Convention. I have taken a good deal of pains to learn what are the sentiments of leading Democrats as to the action of the party, should it win the administration in the November contest, in reference to Federal policy toward the South. It was a question of the largest practical interest, whether, should the Democracy come into power, it would leave the whites of the South to struggle as best they could out of the mire of Radical reconstruction, or whether it would at once lift them out by the strong hand of Federal power. I get but one answer to the inquiry, and that is the Democracy will be swift to sweep from the statute book the whole system of military and African reconstruction as utterly null and void, and of no effect, and at once to recognize the existing white Constitutions of the Southern States, and re-admit the latter to their full equality into the Union. I must confess that I did not personally need such assurances, for when policy and good faith both point to one course, the result is seldom doubtful. But some Southern friends did deem them necessary. I think that, before Congress adjourns, the Democrats in that body will make further declaration and pledge to this effect.

Influentially, the Southern delegates will have to play a very important part in the July National Convention. I am sure the feeling of the men of the South is to bear themselves with moderate reticence in that body, upon whose action so much depends. But a position of great influence will be forced upon them, as to advice upon, if not absolute determination of, a very important and delicate question. This relates, not to the platform—for happily there will not be unmanageable diversity of opinion here—but to the choice of the available candidate. General Grant being the opposing candidate, the soldier vote of the late great armies, now scattered in every State, will be a large element in settling the result. And the question is, can that be counted on for a Democratic candidate, taken from the wing of the "Peace Democracy?" To take an extreme case, hardly any will be found to deny that it would be extremely hazardous to make Mr. Vallandingham the standard bearer, for not only would his peace principles and his copperheadism be vocalized from every stump, but his actual hostility to the war. It won't do to undertake a million of men who were in arms in that war, even by implication, that they fought and risked life and limb on the wrong side. No one knows this better than Mr. Vallandingham himself. He felt and patriotically acted upon it at the (August, 1866) Philadelphia Convention, when, to avoid a conflict of opinion, he refrained from pressing his undoubted claims to a seat on its floor. Had he done so, no conscientious Southern man, grateful for sacrifices to his people, could have voted against his right to sit, and yet the political effect of so just a vote would have been unfortunate at the time. Mr. V. yielded his rights to the cause of harmony. Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, will go into the New York Convention with a greater number of, and more enthusiastic friends, than any other man. Everybody admits his high qualifications for the Presidential office. Independent in private fortune, he has turned his leisure for years past to account in studying the science of politics and government, and he stands before the country a ripe statesman, equal to the duties of the highest offices of statesmanship. Added to this, his character as a man and a gentleman is lofty, unimpeachable and spotless. If he could be elected, say even those who question the expediency of his nomination, he is all that the party could want and the country demand in a President of the United States. But the outcry against Vallandingham, it is argued, would be raised in a lower key against Pendleton. The idea of this class of Democrats is that the Democratic candidate must go to the soldier vote with an unstained war record, or Grant will win in such soldier States as Illinois and others in the West, which we cannot afford to lose. And what is a little singular, this class of Democrats look to the Southern influence in the Convention to settle the question of expediency and policy. The Southern stake in the result is so unspeakably great that these gentlemen believe the South in the Convention will decide the question with the maturest consideration, and under the gravest responsibilities of a sound judgment. I submit the case for reflection to our people at home.

My own feeling about it needs no concealment. While I believe Pendleton is the trained statesman who would best fill the office, and while he is my first choice, the fact that the man, who has lately made his mark so friendly to freedom, as commander of the Fifth Military District, was the best fighting corps commander in the Federal army, would not cause me to hesitate one instant in giving him my most cordial support. So, too, of President Johnson, if escaping impeachment, and he should be eligible, and by chance the Democrats should nominate him. This is a great question, involving nothing less than the "deliverance and liberty" of ten States, and to be most carefully pondered.

TERRIBLE THUNDER STORM—LOSS OF LIFE, &c.—We regret to learn from Capt. Wooten, Conductor on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, that a most terrific thunder storm happened at Laurinburg on the afternoon of the 16th inst., just after the train from Wilmington arrived at that depot, and while the passengers were at dinner. Rev. John B. McKinnon, a promising young Presbyterian minister, and Mr. Lauchlin McLaurin, son of John McLaurin, Esq., all of Laurinburg, Richmond county, were instantly killed; thus adding another awful warning, that "in the midst of life we are in death." These young gentlemen were standing in the store attached to the hotel, waiting for their mail matter, the postoffice being kept in the same store, when one of those vivid and destructive flashes of lightning, that always spread terror, entered several parts of the building, passing by currents down the sides, shivering a portion of the roof and some parts of the house, and selecting these individuals as victims. Persons at the dinner table had their knives and forks knocked out of their hands and others were somewhat stunned, but no one severely injured except these young men, whose untimely death has spread gloom and grief over that community.

We learn the storm raged for many miles along the line of the road.—Wilmington Journal, 16th.

ALL QUIET.—It affords us pleasure in making the statement that throughout the western section of North Carolina, especially Mecklenburg, Gaston, Lincoln and Cleveland counties, perfect order and the kindest feelings are exhibited between the two races. There may be a few restless, thoughtless men on both sides, who, upon the slightest provocation, would recklessly bring about serious disorder, but the provision made will serve as an effectual check upon such.—Charlotte Times.

BUTLER—A DINNER SCENE.—A Washington correspondent writes the following good account of a scene which was lately enacted at Willard's:

"There is a loose darkey about Willard's Hotel named Tom. You can bribe Tom to do anything. The other day there was a dinner party given by a New York contractor, at which it was understood that Ben. Butler would be a guest. Some disloyal wag, without the fear of Congress before him, got hold of Tom, lead him liberally, and put him up to a piece of outrageous and treasonable tomfoolery.

After the plates were served, the host said, "That will do, Tom; you can go."—But Tom did not go. Observing that his orders were not obeyed, the contractor repeated, "I told you to go, Tom; if I want you, I'll ring for you."

Still Tom hung about the door and did not retire. At last, very much worried at his contumacy, New York turned upon Ethiopia and said, sternly, attracting the attention of the whole company, "I have told you twice to leave the room, and by —, I'll be obeyed, or put you out myself."

Tom approached the table humbly, and replied in a subdued tone, but loud enough to be heard by all present, "If you please sir—with submission—"I can't go; I'm obliged to stay."

"The d—l you are! What for?"

"Well, sah, if I must tell, I must. I axes Mars Butler's pardon, but I'm 'sponsible for de spoons. Dem spoons is silver, an' I was 'specially set to watch 'em. I can't go, sah. It's as much as my place is wuf, sah." The sequel can better be imagined than described."

THE WEEKLY SENTINEL.

The Weekly Sentinel has been furnished to Clubs, as a Campaign paper, at exceedingly low rates. After the election, (the 23d inst.,) this arrangement will cease.—The Weekly Sentinel, after the 23rd. inst., can only be sent to new subscribers, at the following rates:

Weekly Sentinel for one year	$2.00
Do. for six months	1.00
Do. for three months	50

The Clubs already subscribed for will be continued, until the time is out, at the rates heretofore agreed upon. The above prices are low enough—none can ask such a paper at a lower rate.

LADIES! PREPARE YOURSELVES FOR A RICH TREAT,—OPENING DAY, TUESDAY, THE 21ST DAY OF APRIL, AT MRS. CETTINGER'S.—Her styles, assortment of bonnets and hats, and, what is better than all, her prices, will compare favorably with any other first class establishment of the kind on the Western continent. td.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Agency for the sale of Manufactured and Smoking Tobacco of all brands: Cowand & Harriss, Commission Merchants, Norfolk, Va.

Corn, Bacon, Peaches (in Cans,) &c; Douglas Bell, Market Square.

Rosenbaum, No. 16, Fayetteville Street, announces his large, varied and superb importation of Spring Goods. His old stand has been elegantly re-fitted and presents a stylish and attractive appearance. Give him a call.

THE RADICAL POW-WOW, YESTERDAY.—The great Radical Mass-Meeting, which has been heralded for weeks to come off on yesterday, was a most ridiculous failure. A procession paraded the streets in the morning, numbering probably two hundred negroes—not a white man being seen in the crowd. This is a little strange. Were they ashamed of their negro brethren? Or were their negro brethren so ashamed of them, that they would not permit them a place in the ragged regiment?

The barbecue took place at the Baptist Grove. We are unable to tell what was said or done there. A large number of negro women and children, we understand, were there added to the crowd. They came to get rations. Little field, and Hood (the negro Convenshuner and preacher, who charged $104 80 for traveling 120 miles, when he should only have charged $24,) made speeches—possibly some others. Bad music, worse speeches and worser temper prevailed,—and so passed off the great jubilee, which cost the Union Congressional Republican Committee ever so much. A few more such exhibitions would be of incalculable service to the Conservatives.

We understand that in three minutes after the provisions were cut up, there was hardly a grease spot left. Such scrambling and clawing as were seen beggars all description, and many of the darkeys didn't get a crumb, to their great disgust and disappointment. They swear they won't vote for folks that don't "perwide" better than "dat."

NORTH CAROLINA BUSINESS DIRECTORY.—This valuable publication is now complete and has just been issued from the press of Messrs. Nichols, Gorman & Neathery, of this city. We are indebted to Messrs. Branson & Jones, the proprietors, for a well printed copy. We doubt if any State in the Union has published a more correct or a fuller list of the statistics of each County than this. Each copy has a good map of the State, with parts of Virginia and South Carolina, with all the Counties and principal towns, villages, rivers, &c., and with the localities of the coal, iron, gold and copper mines designated. The population, names of the principal officers, merchants, physicians, lawyers, ministers, colleges, schools, factories, mines, &c., of each county are given. Besides this, a large amount of valuable statistical information is furnished.

The work ought to be in the hands of every man of business in the State. Every merchant of Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Richmond, Petersburg and Norfolk, ought to have a copy. It is published at the low price of $2. The first edition is a small one, only 1,200, but Messrs. Branson & Jones have made arrangements to issue an improved and larger edition, if the demand should call for it, in the next two months. The intrinsic value of the book is so great, that we think an edition of 5,000 should be called for.

GO TO THE POLLS AND VOTE!

We hope that no white man will allow any circumstance to prevent his voting. The negroes will crowd the polls to prevent the white men from voting, but such arrangements will be made as will enable all, both white and colored, to vote without hindrance.

If colored men are disposed to vote the Conservative ticket, let them do so fearlessly and above board. If any threats are made to INTIMIDATE them, report the offending parties at once. Let Conservative men be quiet, avoid all disorder, BUT LET THEM BE DETERMINED TO MAINTAIN THEIR RIGHTS.

THE MEETING AT HILLSBORO.

We learn that the Conservative Mass Meeting, at Hillsboro', on Saturday, was attended by a large concourse of people,—many ladies gracing the occasion with their presence. The enthusiasm was up to fever heat. Able and stirring addresses were made by P. C. Cameron, Esq., F. N. Strudwick, Esq., and Hon. D. G. Fowle. The latter gentleman spoke upwards of two hours in a powerful effort, which produced a fine impression and was received with great favor by the large crowd.

THE GREAT WEST!

EXTRACT from a letter, dated

ASHEVILLE, April, 1868.

"There is no mistaking the indications up here. A tremendous re action is sweeping the country. The enemy has ceased trying to make converts and confine themselves to trying to keep the Leagues from falling to pieces. Great excitement is getting up. Some times, after speaking nearly all day, Vance (God bless him!) is stopped at night to speak to 50 or 75 persons at some school house on the road side. Mark Erwin is doing noble service. Push on the col umns, and we will WHIP THEM BADLY!"

"They (colored voters) are counselled to exercise the right of voting in a quiet and orderly manner, giving offence to no one; and after casting their votes, NOT TO LINGER about the polling places, but to return quietly to their homes and to their customary avocations.

Commanding Officers will give as wide a circulation as possible to this order within the limits of their commands."—Gen. Canby's Gen. Order No. 61.

"We again advise the colored men, and all loyal white men, to "flock to the polls in crowds." This is the very thing we want. After they get there we want them to vote, and THEN TO REMAIN as long as they can spare the time, and aid in getting others to vote the Republican ticket."—Holden's rebel-Radical Standard.

THE ELECTION, TO-DAY.

Very good arrangements have been made as to the place and manner of conducting the election, to-day.

The votes will be received at the two front windows of the Court House.

After voting, persons will be required to retire from about the window.

No loitering about the polls will be permitted.

THE white man who fails, within the next three days, to VOTE AGAINST the infamous Constitution, will only have himself to blame for the horrors which may follow its adoption.

REGISTRATION.—We learn that not only were attempts made to register here, by at least one army officer, which was very properly refused by the Registrars, but that an effort was made to get the negro soldiers at Goldsboro' to register, but which was also defeated by the Registrars, at that place. We are glad to record these instances of fidelity to the law and to their oaths, on the part of the Registrars.

A RESPECTABLE colored man must feel ashamed to be caught in the company of the itinerant plunderers and carpet-baggers who have taken charge of the Radical party.

LET THE laboring men remember that the infamous Black Crook Constitution puts them under the control of negroes, and thus practically deprives them of their rights of citizenship!

TIM LEE, FOR SHERIFF.—This man is attempted to be forced upon the people of this county, for Sheriff, by the Radicals. He is destitute of proper qualifications for that office. The blacks feel a reluctance to vote for him, especially in opposition to David Lewis; yet every effort is being made to force him upon them. Let the friends of Lewis rally to the polls and leave no stone unturned to defeat Lee. He is spending money and liquor freely, or rather the party are. Let the people give him such a rebuke as will make such men understand that they cannot be trusted with offices of high trust and responsibility!

SIXTY men left the Red String League, in Buncombe, last week. FORTY left it in a body at Barnsville, Yancey county.

DON'T SCRATCH THE TICKET! Vote even for the men whom you may not like, provided they are regularly nominated. This is no time to allow personal considerations to influence your judgment.

FRIENDS,—WHITE MEN! We have but three words, now, to say to you. They are vote! VOTE! VOTE!!

A Portland school house caught fire the other day, and as the boys watched it, one in another school said, enthusiastically and honestly, to his companion: "Oh! Johnny, don't you wish it was our school-house?"

REGISTRATION.—100 whites and 21 blacks were reported last week in this county—a gain of 71 for the Conservative ticket.—Rutherford Vindicator.

General Cooper, Adjutant General of the late Confederacy, was in Alexandria on Monday last.

It is reported in the newspapers that there are in New York gambling saloons for fashionable ladies.

The Earl of Cardigan, who died in England a few days ago, was the leader of the Light Brigade at Balaklava.

THE MEETING LAST NIGHT.

The meeting of the white men at the Court House, last night,—the final meeting of the campaign,—was, by far, the most glorious rally of the canvass. We have never witnessed, in this City, a larger meeting or a more intense and ardent enthusiasm. The earnest excitement of the occasion found vent in repeated and prolonged cheers and applause.

The President of the Club, Capt. J. C. Gorman, (who has filled his brief Presidency with great efficiency and acceptability,) called the meeting to order at 8 o'clock. Stirring speeches were made by Messrs. Lewis, Bledsoe, S. T. Williams, (our gallant candidate for Congress,) Russ, Badger, Snow and Gales,—all of which were greeted with tumultuous shouts of "approval. Cheer after cheer rent the air, and the meeting adjourned, at a comparatively late hour, full of determination. The men who conducted that meeting will do their duty.

BARBECUE AT SPIKES'.—We learn that there was a large crowd of white men at Spikes', on yesterday. They had an excellent barbecue, and were addressed, in an able and spirited manner, by our county candidates (except Mr. Bledsoe, who addressed a large crowd, with fine effect, at Franklinton,) and by the Hon. Sion H. Rogers. Only two or three white Reds were on the ground.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

ELIZABETH CITY, April 15, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The lowering clouds of future degradation and anticipated misery, in this section of the good old North State, are being rapidly dispelled. To-day, in this Radical county, the beams of sunshine and happiness have once more made their appearance, and so strong was the effect upon the "disaffected," that things, upon the whole, have assumed the appearance of rejuvenation, and the most disconsolate even smile with confidential joy, upon the defeat of the dread monster, made and intended to crush us, yclept a Constitution. We will not have it, because it is a very unusual matter for men to sign their own death warrants.

Gen. (!) Little field, (first two syllables correct,) has been here; judge r. p. dick has been here; French, of Washington City, has been here; Mr. Nigger Hood has been here, and another man named Jno. Pool, with a white skin, but miserable appearance, has been here, also. We have, to-day, a man named Hall, (E. D.) This man Hall has accomplished more good in this county, by one speech, than the combined efforts of all who have preceded him. Col. Hall was listened to by all colors, races and parties, with more marked attention, than is usually seen at public political meetings,—and happy are we to say, that his splendid effort made here, to the ignorant Reds, has wrought a mighty change.

Friend Hall is anxious to get hold of the "millionaire" Littlefield, but in passing over the field, he is not able to find little. The General, from the record against him, furnished by Col. Hall, is evidently a poor concern, and an enemy to the whole human race, save Little field. We think, had he have been here, he would have felt much smaller.

By tens, by scores, aye, hundreds, has Col. Hall caused people to save their future disgrace, by leaving the ranks of Radicalism. At night he was complimented by a serenade from our Brass Band, and afterwards presented with a bouquet by Elizabeth City's fairest daughters. Appropriate and eloquent replies, well timed, being made to each compliment bestowed.

The people need have no fears as to the final result. If times in the West are such as we have had represented to us, the miserable machine, made for our destruction, will be dead forever on Thursday next. Let us all take courage at the idea of "a better day coming," go to the polls, and, in one united mass, declare that the offspring of the signers of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, and the native born and true-hearted men of our good old State, will never submit to be ruled by men, who are aliens, by a set of lazy, thieving, rascally creatures, whom we know not, and who have no interest in the affairs of our people. Come up, ye Western Conservatives, and do your duty, and your sister Counties of the East will guarantee for us all a splendid victory!

Yours &c.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

KINSTON, N. C., April 17.

Messrs. Pell & Gales:—Superior Court is in session this week, presided over by Judge Warren, who is an honor to the Judiciary of North Carolina. Intense excitement prevails here upon the issues—or rather the issue—of the day, and nearly all of the white men will vote against the "Kussed Konstitution."

A mass meeting was held by the Conservatives of this county, on yesterday, when our gallant and gifted candidate for Congress addressed the immense crowd, who were literally wedged together in the Court House, with telling effect against the Redestruction Consatitution, so called. In short, he made an able speech and a good impression upon all present, and I can assure the gallant Colonel of the cheerful and hearty support of every good Conservative.

The oldest citizens say that there never has been as much excitement, politically, within their remembrance, and the Conservatives are jubilant. A thorough canvass has been made, and all have done their duty. I predict that on election day Lenoir will show herself right.

You shall hear from us daily as to the progress of the election, so that you may inform the people of the result of the election sooner than it will be possible to obtain official information.

Very truly,

M.

KU KLUX—THE AVENGER ABROAD.—Terrible was the phantom scene in the alley near the Post-office Thursday night last. A skeleton, with a winding sheet drawn about his dry bones, seated upon a snow-white steed, whose nostrils emitted streams of flame with a strong odor of brimstone, was seen just before the heavy rain burst upon the city. Detaching his skull from its natural position on his shoulders, the skeleton, phantom, Ku Klux, or whatever it might be, rapped upon the window of the Postoffice and in desperate haste inquired for the mail for Fort Fisher. A considerable crowd being attracted by this unusual sight, the Ku Klux exhibited evident signs of uneasiness, and with an explosion like the report of a pistol vanished. It is useless to say that the frightened darkies who chanced to be near the spot took to their heels.—Wil. Journal.

Mr. Dickens is said to have sent home eighty thousand dollars in gold as part of his earnings in this country.

A cotemporary says that if a single May-flower blooms in Rhode Island, it can be scented all over the State.

A SCRAP OF HISTORY.

Manager [illegible] could not refrain from manifesting [illegible] of the insolence of his nature at the close of the examination of Mr. Merrick before the Senate yesterday.—He was careful, however, to do so at the close, and when Mr. Merrick could not reply without violating the rules of the Court.

A piece of history may, to some extent, account for Butler's spleen, which he lacks the courage to manifest unless in instances which would not permit it to be resented.

Butler was a member of the Charleston and Baltimore Conventions in 1860, at which secession and rebellion were inaugurated.—Mr. Merrick was also a member of that Convention, representing the State of Illinois as one of the delegates at large.

Some of the delegates from the Southern States seceded from the Convention at Charleston, and others seceded from it at its adjourned meeting in Baltimore. Among those who seceded at Baltimore was this man, Benjamin F. Butler, and two of his colleagues from Massachusetts. Immediately after Butler announced his secession, Mr. Merrick rose and addressed the Convention, on behalf of the delegation from Illinois, denouncing Butler and his associates from Massachusetts as a band of conspirators and traitors, without even the excuse pretended by Southern men for their conduct, and who were, from the basest and most infamous motives, encouraging and aiding those Southern men in their scheme for breaking up the party and disrupting the Union. It was under this speech that Butler left the hall in which the Convention was assembled.

Some years have passed, but he no doubt still remembers that manly castigation.—National Intelligencer.

That the negroes of the South can establish themselves in any permanent supremacy over the whites we do not, however, accept for a moment. It it shall be the pleasure of Congress, as it has the power to do, to put upon us a Constitution which they have invited us freely to pass upon—a Constitution giving the negroes tenfold more power than they have in Jamaica—we shall interpret it as the decree of God for a sharp and decisive settlement of the controversy between the white and black races on this Continent. It will fearfully embarrass, but it will not destroy, the white race of the South. The white race of the South cannot be destroyed. When the negroes are put over us, then, at least, we shall put forth our strength. We shall offer such inducements to white immigration that these sparsely settled States must rapidly fill up. The negro will be overwhelmed with numbers, and it will be too late to make any terms. It is perfectly evident that Providence designs the United States as the theatre of a great white empire, whose power and whose civilization shall exert a controlling influence in the history of the future.—That the three or four millions of blacks here can interpose any barrier to the realization of this destiny is plainly chimerical. The only question is, shall the changes which impend in the South be gradual or violent? With peace between the races, the whites of the South might be saved from much that awaits them under the Radical programme; and the blacks, while remitted to their proper position in society, would be saved from rapid extinction as a race. The settled and determinate antagonism of the races (which will be inaugurated at once by such a Constitution as this) precipitates immediately the beginning of the end. Virginia, racked to the utmost capacity of endurance, will be the first to throw to the surface the disease which has so long preyed upon her vitals, and though for some years the pitiable victim of a disgusting eruption, will ultimately be restored to health, to vigor, and untainted blood.

In protesting against the establishment of negro supremacy, we plead for both races; for the whites, that they may be spared, depressed as they now are, the utter prostration of further violent changes in their social system; for the blacks, that in the name of humanity they shall be allowed a fair opportunity to save, or at least to delay, the doom of their race.—Extract from Address of Virginia Conservatives.

STRAWS ARE INDICATIVE.—As an indication that the odious Constitution which is sought to be imposed upon us is not approved by the black man himself, we are furnished the following conversation by a gentleman acquaintance, who has but recently made his entrance into North Carolina from a Western State. Scene—a barber shop in a town down upon the Wilmington road; our stranger friend and colored barber in conversation:

Barber.—"Do you live in Newbern?"

Stranger.—"No; I live twelve hundred miles from here."

Barber.—"Come up on boat this evening?"

Stranger.—"No; came on train from Halifax."

Barber—"What State do you live in?"

Stranger.—"Kentucky."

Barber.—"There is considerable excitement now in this State on political subjects. There is a new Constitution to ratify."

Stranger.—"Do you think it will be accepted?"

Barber.—"No, sir; I think they will squash it, for the whites do not like it, and I do not blame them."

Stranger, (very ignorant,)—"Why don't they like it?"

Barber.—"First, because it was made by an ignorant set of men. Second, it was made in the interest of strangers not living in this State, and the people ought not to pass a Constitution for the benefit of citizens of New York, who hold bonds against the State, and will sell the State for taxes if this thing is passed."

This conversation, says our informant, needs no comment. It shows that even some of the blacks see the enormity of the instrument that is being forced upon the people of North Carolina.—Roanoke News.

THE "BOY ORATOR."—We had the pleasure on last Friday evening of listening to a lecture from Mr. Josephus Cheaney, the young Kentucky orator, who has just made his advent into North Carolina to advocate the cause of Temperance. Mr. Cheaney is a young man of fine ability and splendid oratorical powers, and comes up fully to the reputation which he has won in other fields. His discussion of the question of temperance is based solely upon the Bible, he proving therefrom that Temperance is a great Christian virtue. His arguments are sound and conclusive, and we donot not but that his efforts will awaken a new interest in the cause throughout the State, as he intends visiting all parts of it. Aside from his oratorical powers, Mr. Cheaney is a pleasant, affable gentleman, and we bespeak him the good will of the people of North Carolina and the co-operation of our brethren of the press.—Weldon News.

GOOD NEWS.—Col. E. D. Hall, the talented and indefatigable candidate of the Conservative party for Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina, arrived in our city yesterday, after a thorough canvass of the Eastern counties of that State.

He brings the most cheering news with him, and no doubt now exists, that the Old North State will bury negro constitutions, Holdenites and carpet baggers beyond the power of resurrection. Keep the ball in motion.—Norfolk Journal, 18th.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON—IMPEACHMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 20, M.

The Senate proceeded with Impeachment at 11 o'clock.

The Managers are introducing documentary evidence.

Blodgett's indictment was offered, and Butler offered Blodgett's answer.

Evarts objected that Blodgett was not on trial here.

Butler proceeded to state orally what he intended to prove.

The Chief Justice ordered that it be reduced to writing, and Butler protested.

Chase persisted and Butler is now writing.

IMPEACHMENT, &C.

WASHINGTON, April 20 P. M.

E. O. Townsend has been appointed Agent of the Freedmen's Bureau for Virginia.

The close of impeachment is not expected before the middle of next week.

Stanbery is much better.

The Senate refused to admit the Blodgett papers.

Butler, when appealing for Blodgett, said that he had never been able to get his case before the Senate. Justice should be done him now. Blodgett was only Captain of a Rebel Militia company, and an unwilling Captain. Blodgett would swear. Blodgett was known in Angus a; he was elected by his neighbors to make a Constitution for Georgia—he was made Mayor of Augusta by Pope. Butler did not doubt, when Georgia was admitted, that Blodgett would take his seat here with the members of us.

Butler then offered the nominations of Sherman and Thomas to be Brevet Generalships, claiming their admissibility under the 10th article.

The Senate refused—14 to 35.

Yeas:—Messrs. Anthony, Cole, Fessenden, Fowler, Grimes, Henderson, Morton, Ross, Sumner, Tipton Trumbull, Van Winkle, Willey and Yates.

Both parties announced the evidence closed.

Chase ordered the Prosecutor to proceed with the argument. Boutwell, not being ready, asked adjournment to Tuesday. The Defence asked until Wednesday, in view of Stanbery's sickness. Boutwell, seconded the request, and, after hearing and rejecting an appeal from Logan to print his argument, the Court adjourned to Wednesday.

House.—The Senate appropriation for impeachment was considered.

Eldridge said that it was evident that ten thousand dollars would not defray the expenses of the impeachment trial, and he thought this was a mere blind. Why did not the Committee come out boldly, and say that this was a mere bagatelle to operate on the public mind.

Washburne said if another appropriation was required, he would vote for it, and he believed it would be worth one hundred thousand dollars to pay the expenses.

Eldridge asked if he understood that the gentlemen would give one hundred thousand dollars to make the impeachment trial a success.

Washburne had not said that exactly, but what he meant was that if impeachment was a success, it would be worth not one hundred thousand dollars, but one hundred millions of dollars to the country, in greater security to person and property.

Eldridge said he suspected as much—that if this money was to be used to secure the success of impeachment, he would not vote a dollar for such a purpose.

THE WHITE MEN of Virginia mean to control the government of this State, and they are determined not to allow themselves to be governed by an inferior race, so lately their own illiterate slaves. They do not intend to prove themselves unworthy of their proud ancestry, nor permit the priceless heritage of fame and glory, which has been handed down to them from their world-honored sires, now to be dragged in the filth and mire by a mob of ignorant negroes, led on by a handful of low adventurers, the blackness of whose hearts constitutes their only tie of fraternity with their black faced followers. This determination will be adhered to as the son of Hamilcar kept his oath of hostility to Rome.—Rich. Examiner.

ORDER FROM GENERAL CANBY.

HEDQ'RS 2ND. MILITARY DISTRICT, CHARLESTON, S. C., April 6, 1868

GENERAL ORDERS No. 61.

The Commanding General has received information from different sections of the States of North Carolina and South Carolina, and from members of both political parties, that combinations have been formed, or are now being formed, to prevent, delay or hinder the execution of the laws of the United States, or by force, intimidation or threat to prevent persons from accepting or executing the duties of any office or employment under the United States, at the elections to be held under the authority of the law of March 2 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," and the laws that are supplementary thereto. While he is satisfied that these complaints apply to a few persons only of both parties, it is proper that all such persons should be warned that any attempt by force to prevent, hinder or delay the execution of the laws of the United States, under the authority of which the said election is ordered, or by force, intimidation or threat to prevent any person from accepting or holding any office, or trust, or place of confidence under the United States, as Registrar, Superintendent, Judge, Manager, Inspector or Clerk, or other employment at said election, will be amenable, not only to the penalties prescribed under the authority of the said laws, but for violation of the Act of Congress "to define and punish certain conspiracies," approved July 31, 1861. (Statutes at Large, Volume 12, Chapter XXXIII.)

It is the duty of the civil and military authorities in both States to secure to every registered voter the full and free exercise of his right of suffrage, and this duty must be fully, faithfully and impartially performed, and the Commanding General confidently expects that the people of these States will unite in securing for each other the full and proper exercise of this franchise. But if in any District or County, or polling subdivision of either State, the election should be prevented, or the ballot-boxes or poll-lists should be destroyed, or the electors duly registered under the laws of the United States should be prevented by force or intimidation from voting, a new election will be ordered for such District, county or polling subdivision.

To the end that the laws of the United States may be duly executed; that the officers charged with conducting the elections may be protected in the discharge of their duties, and that the qualified electors may be protected in the exercise of the elective franchise, Commanders of Posts are authorized, whenever in their judgment it may be necessary, to appoint, from the officers of the army or the Freedmen's Bureau, under their command, Military Commissioners for Districts or counties within the territorial limits of their commands that are so remote from their headquarters that the powers conferred upon Post Commanders cannot be immediately or directly exercised.

The Military Commissioners so appointed are invested with all the powers of the Justices of the Peace of Districts or Counties, or the police magistrates of cities, and will be governed in the execution of their duties by the laws of the State in which they may be serving, except so far as these laws may be in conflict with the laws of the United States or with the orders issued from the Headquarters of this District; and, in addition to any troops that may be placed at their disposal, are given the command of the police force of Districts, Counties, cities and towns; and all police officers, sheriffs, constables, and other peace officers, are required to obey and execute the orders of the Military Commissioners in all such cases.

The Military Commissioners will promptly report all cases in which they assume jurisdiction, and the disposition made in each case. When parties are held for trial, either in confinement or under bail, the case will be so fully reported as to enable the Commanding General to decide whether it shall be tried by a military tribunal or be brought before a civil court.

The jurisdiction herein given to the Military Commissioners will be determined and limited by the authority heretofore delegated to Post Commanders by General Orders No. 32, of May 30, 1867, and General Orders No. 145, of December 6, 1867, and will not be considered as extending to the inhabitants in their ordinary personal relations, unless the civil authorities should refuse or fail to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to give all rightful protection to persons and property; and all persons, whether in authority or not, are required to obey and execute all lawful orders of the Military Commissioners to the same extent and in the same manner that they are required by law to obey and execute the writs of the civil magistrates.

Some of the complaints that have reached the Commanding General apply to colored voters of the two States, and to sections where they have the numerical ascendancy. To them it is proper to say that the elective franchise conferred upon them by law, carries with it no authority to restrict others in the free exercise of that right; and that while it is their duty not to regard threats or intimidations as to themselves, any combinations to prevent by force, intimidation or threats the same free exercise of this right by others will be unlawful, and will subject the offenders to the penalties prescribed by law and by military orders.—They are counselled to exercise the right of voting in a quiet and orderly manner, giving offence to no one; and after casting their votes, not to linger about the polling places, but to return quietly to their homes and to their customary avocations.

By command of Brevet Major General ED. R. S. CANBY.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 45.

The Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," having framed a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of the aforesaid laws; and having by an ordinance adopted on the 17th day of March, 1868, provided that the said Constitution shall be submitted "for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this Act [March 23, 1867, Section 4] at an election to be conducted by the officers appointed or to be appointed by the Commanding General as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days after the notice thereof to be given by the said Convention," and having further provided, by the aforesaid ordinance, that at the same time an election shall be held for Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, and for all State and County officers who are to be elected by the people under this Constitution, and further, that in each Congressional District of the State an election shall be held for a member of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, It is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, 1868, and ending on Thursday the 23d day of April, 1868, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For Constitution" or "Against Constitution," and also on the same ballot for the State and County officers and for members of the United States House of Representatives, as specified in the before cited ordinance.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days, the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the lists, and such persons shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such lists the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts, who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2, 1867 and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the supplementary Act of July 19, 1867.

Fourth. Any duly registered voter of this State who may have removed from the County in which he was registered, shall be entitled to vote in the County to which he has removed and has resided for the ten days next preceding this election, upon presentation of a certificate of registration from the County in which he was originally registered, or upon his affidavit or other satisfactory evidence that he was so registered, and that he has not voted at this election. It shall be the duty of the Registrars, upon the application of any duly registered voter who has removed or is about to remove from the precinct in which he was originally registered, to furnish him with a certificate that he was so registered, and to note the fact in the registration books of the precinct. In default of the certificate, the affidavit of the voter must set forth the County and precinct in which he was originally registered and the length of time he has resided in the County in which he desires to vote. In doubtful cases, the Registrars or Inspectors of election shall require such additional evidence as may be necessary to satisfy them that the applicant is legally entitled to vote. Blank forms for the certificates and for the affidavits herein required, will be furnished the Registrars and the inspectors of election and when used will be attached to the ballots cast by such voters, and will be transmitted to District Headquarters with the returns required by law.

Fifth. The said election will be held in each County at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the boards of Registration by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at six o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Eighth. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election to any office to be filled at this election, shall serve as a Judge or Inspector of Election in any precinct which he seeks to represent.

Ninth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of Election, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered and directed to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers to the other polling places as may in his judgment best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Tenth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited; and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of Elections, to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority. The exhibition or carrying of deadly weapons in violation of General Orders No. 10, of 1867, at or in the vicinity of any polling places during the election herein ordered, will be regarded and treated as an additional offence.

Eleventh. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from six o'clock of the evening of the 20th of April, until six o'clock of the morning of the 24th of April, 1868, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Twelfth. Military interference with elections unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Thirteenth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several Registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.
